Mt. Pleasant

The Lord blessed us again Sunday with a beautiful rain. Our pastor at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church was on duty as usual and conducted a nice service. The Junior Choir sang, accompanied by Miss Tara Walker at piano. The daughters of Deacon and Mrs. Robert Thornton sang "My Face Looks up to Thee." It was enjoyed by the congregation.

Guests from the Appomattox Assembly included Mrs. Dorothy Stevens, Mrs. Annie Humbles, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chilton, Mr. Charlie Tanner, and Evan Fleshman. Mrs. Goode, a teacher in the county, gave some encouraging remarks regarding the accomplishments of the organization. Mr. Chilton, the Assembly's president, outlined some highlights of the organization's current activities.

Family Day is scheduled for next Sunday at Mt. Pleasant. Mrs. Odell Johnson and the Canaan Baptist Church Young Adult Choir will be featured in the morning. Our pastor, the Rev. Napier, and the Alabama Choir will be featured in the afternoon service.

The first Sunday in June, at 3 p.m., the Rev. Napier and the Young Adult Choir will be at Chestnut Grove Baptist Church in Appomattox.

Miss Mary Alice Walker of Paterson, N.J., spent her vacation here with her mother and sister, Mrs. Ealdon Walker and Sherri.

The deaconesses of Mt. Pleasant met with Mrs. Napier last Saturday. They reported an enjoyable time. On the third Saturday in June, they will meet at the church.

Bible School will be June 6 through 10. Revival begins Monday night after the fourth Sunday in June. The Rev. Jack Wilson will be the evangelist for the week.

Our prayers go out to the sick and shut-in.

We were extremely happy at Galilee to be host for the First Baptist Church Congregation during renovation of their church. The morning service was enjoyable and Rev. James Johnson, pastor, delivered a special message.

On that afternoon a choir festival was held. The singing feast was very spirited and uplifting. Mrs. Louise Watson, choir president, expressed words of gratitude and the wonderful spirit of brotherhood and working together.

We want to thank God for the many blessings he has shed upon us all. We have been enjoying beautiful weather here in Appomattox. Let us pray for our neighbors in surrounding counties who are suffering the effects of tornados and twisters.

Let us continue in prayer one for another and continue to walk in the light. Remember that every day with Jesus is sweeter than the day before."

Have a pleasant week!

About Mt. Comfort

Book reflects county's past

Appomattox resident, Richard L. Guild, has written a book about the old Dean Johns' home known as Mt. Comfort. The book is titled Mt. Comfort Plantation - A History and Description of an Authentic Colonial Virginia Home. The book includes a history of the DuVal, Adams and Johns families, as well as glimpses into colonial Appomattox. The book should be of interest to Appomattox County residents since it includes little known details of life in Appomattox County before the Civil War. In addition, more than 50 Appomattox County families are mentioned by name in the book.

The book is easy reading and very absorbing since it also includes two murders. The first being the poisoning of George Wythe in Richmond and subsequent William DuVal - Thomas Jefferson correspondence. William DuVal was the original owner of Mt. Comfort and George Wythe was DuVal's and Jefferson's law teacher as well as one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The second murder described in the book is that of young Becky Amos which happened in Appomattox County about the year 1846. The true account of the murder of Becky Amos was actually written by Miss Anna Deane Johns, the well known school teacher here for many years, and is reported in the book exactly as she wrote it in 1935, just prior to her death.

Other subjects covered include a fascinating look at old Appomattox, an account of a medical surgeon who traveled to Captain John's home just prior to the surrender at Appomattox Court House, the mystery of Susans, myths and legends of Mt. Comfort, and others. The book contains numerous photographs, some never before published, as well as an excellent description of the home.

Mr. Guild states that the book is the result of more than three years of historic research and should prove to be an excellent reference book for those interested in history. All the material is carefully referenced and footnoted to be sure the book is accurate and factual. The book is being published by Mr. Guild and will be sold at the Appomattox County Historical Museum as well as several retail outlets. If you like local history you'll want to be sure and read this fascinating book.

SEVENTEEN ARTISTS USING MEDIA RANGING FROM PASTELS TO PAPIER MACHE WERE ON HAND FOR THE "Arts Day" activities hald at Appomattox Primary School last week. The school's front lawn was covered with groups of curious students and a variety of art displays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. In this photo, a group of students huddles in closely to observe a display.
